Trophy Lake Trout Fishing

Peterson's Point Lake Lodge

Point Lake, Northwest Territories

75 Minute Scenic Floatplane Flight From Yellowknife.

Pristine Arctic Waters. Catch Your Legend.

Home of the 58 lb Lake Trout

Situated in the untouched Canadian Barrenlands at the edge of the Arctic Circle, Peterson's Point Lake Lodge is the only lodge on an expansive 70-mile lake. With an average of just eight guests per stay, Point Lake has virtually zero fishing pressure, preserving world-class trophy trout fishing and the pristine silence of the North.

A dedicated 1:2 guide-to-guest ratio pairs with rustic luxury: comfortable guest cabins, a wood-fired sauna, delicious chef-prepared meals, and over 40 years of authentic Peterson family hospitality where everyone knows your name.

Rustic Luxury. Northern Hospitality.

Fly-in fishing adventure on the edge of the barrens.

"The finest lodge in the North... a team that treats you like family! Had an incredible experience at Peterson's! Spectacular fishing. Looking forward to returning to this amazing place!" — Josh & Chet Brothers

Your Home on the Barrens

After an exhilarating day on the water, retreat to the warmth of our Main Lodge. Unwind on the lakeside deck with freshly prepared appetizers and your drink of choice or relax in the lounge with fellow anglers to relive the day's trophy catches. Browse our extensive northern library and take in panoramic tundra views before sitting down to savor a hearty, chef-prepared meal.
